Agamik may be raised to at least what it was before the Revision, viz, Rs 33-6-2, as the person very richly deserves the same and proposes the increase being met either out of the Golaka collections of the temple amounting to Rs 3000 or from the savings of Rs 123-15-0 now being effected out of the Tasdik of the institution.

All that is stated above in regard to the capacity and good work of the Agamik is true. He takes great interest in the temple and its affairs and not only knows the religious portion of the work but has also satisfactorily performed the duties of the Peshkar during the latter's absence. I regret to say however that the financial position of the .

The matter may be favourably considered on some future occasion when the funds of the temple have improved.

Kumaraswami Dikshit struck me as being a very intelligent, capable and hardworking man. He is devoted to the Temple and is held in high regard by everybody. The question of raising his pay to what it was before the revision may be taken up at the first convenient opportunity.

Note continued

In the draft which was issued under Govt P.O. No 2767, dated 24th November 1906, it was observed that owing to the low financial condition of the Nanjangud temple it was not possible to give any increase to the Agamik Kumarasami Deekshit just then, but that the question of raising his pay to what it was before the revision of the Jasdik Pathi of the temple (viz Rs 33-6-2) would be taken up at the first convenient opportunity. The above observations were also communicated to the Agamik by means of an Endorsement.

The Agamik has now petitioned stating that during the proposed transfers of Peshkars, Venkatarama Sastri, Peshkar of the Nanjangud temple, on Rs35-/ a measure is to go to Chamarajnagar, and that as the said post carries only a pay of Rs 25-, a saving of Rs 10/- would accrue in favor of the Nanjangud temple

File No. of 190 | Muzrai Secretariat.

Mr Agamik prays that ~~the~~ the amount thus saved may be added on to his present pay of Rs 20/-, so that the total amount of Rs 30/- may very nearly approach to what ~~he~~ was being paid to him prior to the revision of the Jasdik Patti of the Nanjangud temple.

Orders regarding transfers of Peshkars have not yet been issued. The papers are pending before the Dewan Saheb.

of the Nanjangud temple. The pay of the Office is Rs 25 but under the orders conveyed in the aforesaid Proceedings, Venkataramanasastri was given Rs 35, the excess of Rs 10 being met out of the annual savings of Rs 243-15-0 Venkataramanasastri has since been transferred to Chamarajanagar on pay Rs 35, and Venkataramaniah has been appointed as Archakan of the Nanjangud temple on pay Rs 25. Rs 10 has thus become available in the Nanjangud temple.

A Seenivassacharlu, late Mysore Superintendent reduced his pay and fixed it at Rs 20/- as at present, and that since then the Aganik is getting the reduced pay. ~~It is reported~~ It appears further that although Kumaraswamy Desika resides permanently at Nanjangud, himself performing the Aganik's duties in the Sri Srikanteswara Swami Temple, still, he ~~stated that Kumaraswamy Desikar~~ is also the Aganik of the temples at Chamarajnagar, T. Narsipur and Konanur and that in all those places, he has made arrangements for conducting
